Gayle Cuendet Honored Queen

Bethel 36 Seats Officers

"Let There Be Light" was the theme chosen by Gayle Cuendet for her installation as the newly-elected Honored Queen of Bethel 36, International Order of Job's Daughters, in the 81st installation of the Bethel. The ceremony was held Dec. 5 at the Gardena Masonic Temple. Miss Kallie Stratos, retiring Honored Queen, served as installing Honored Queen for the evening.

Other installing officers were Linda Livings, guide; Elaine Platz, marshal; Linda Kapigian, recorder; Joanne Elliott, chaplain; Joanne Johnston, senior custodian; Judy Gustafson, junior custodian; all past honored queens of Bethel 36.

"One Little Candle" was sung by Pat Slike, while the candlelighting ceremony was conducted by Donna Baum and Teresa Cunningham, members of Bethel 112.

Mrs. Edward Johnston, guardian, and Mr. Robert Collins, associate guardian and master of ceremonies for the evening, were introduced.

The ceremony began with the officers' entrance through a heart-shaped archway decorated with flowers and green tulle. The officers carried a styrofoam base decorated with lavender satin, green and white roses and green tulle surrounding a lavender candle. The Honored Queen chose green and lavender as her colors.

Miss Cuendet entered carrying a bouquet of white orchids tied with green and lavender ribbon. She joined her officers as the soloist sang "Faith Can Move Mountains."

Mr. Collins gave his address of welcome following the escort of the Holy Bible and the presentation of the American Flag.

The elected officers are: Kathy Hallian, senior princess; Nancy Stephenson, junior princess; Pat Cunerty, guide; Barbara Durian, marshal. Appointed officers are Pam Jackson and Chris Eggum, guards; Lynn McCartney and Nancy Davis, custodians; Melaine Rickabaugh, recorder; Gloria Dowden, musician; Helen Dean, librarian; Nancy Combs, chaplain; Kitren Willette, treasurer; Susan Verecke, Sharon Putman, Gayrol Rettberg, Carol Bennett and Carol Collins, messengers.

Also participating in the installation were Leona Drozda, past honored queen of Bethel 36; reader; Pat Slike, member of Bethel 112, soloist; Jan Foyle, member of Bethel 36, guest book attendant; Mr. Ted McKinnon, electrician; Dave Gurski and Larry McCurdy, ushers; Mrs. Gerald Cunerty, reception chairman; and Mrs. Marie Gardier, decorations.

A reception and dance followed the installation.

Honored Queen Gayle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cuendet and is a senior at Gardena High School.

Mrs. George Savage President

Las Madrecitas To Install

Mrs. George Savage, 102 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera, will be installed as president of Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Orthopaedic Hospital, at a luncheon meeting tomorrow at the Lobster House in Redondo. A social hour will be held at 11:30 a.m., followed by luncheon at 12.

The new president and her husband, Capt. George Savage, have been South Bay residents since 1947. They are the parents of four children, Barbara, 21, Michael, 17, Nancy, 12, and Carol, 9. An active member of Las Madrecitas, Mrs. Savage was named as a "distinctive member" several years ago. She has served on many committees and as chairman of the group's "Evergreen Ball." Other organizations in which she has worked include the Riviera and Parkway PTA and has assisted with the Muscular Dystrophy drive. The Savage family is active in the Palos Verdes Yacht Club.

Others to be installed are Mmes. Edward Sokolski, first vice president; Jack Koehler, second vice president; Ralph Garland, treasurer; John Kenny, recording secretary; Robert Zicare, corresponding secretary; Jack Ewing, historian; and Louis Lanzer, auditor.

Committee chairmen are Mmes. Howard Langpap, membership; Frank Bescoy, publicity; Robert Stander, volunteers; James Bowie, publication; Clarence Burke, public relations; John Dougherty, hospitality.

Others are Mmes. Conrad Hamilton, communications; Charles McMullens, points; Howard Anderson, parliamentarian; Richard Quinn, Las Ninas; and Hilbert Ternstrom, printing.

Mrs. Glenn Kleinhesselink, luncheon chairman, will serve as the installing officer.

SEXTON - RICHARDSON

Miss Jane Victoria Sexton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Sexton, 2413 W. 179th St., became the bride of Gerald Lee Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Whiteley, 3926 W. 176th St., in a high noon ceremony at Nativity Catholic Church.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a full length white crepe empire gown with a Chantilly lace bolero and a long lace train. Her illusion veil cascaded from a crepe and lace headpiece and she carried a shower bouquet of white gardenias.

In pale pink gowns, bridesmaids were Misses Joanne Richardson and Linda Ratly. Miss Carol Sexton, maid of honor, wore deep pink. Theresa Langner, in pale pink, was flower girl.

Bob Richardson performed the best man duties and the more than 200 guests were seated by Bill Schroyer, Dave Kuri, Tom Sexton and James Richardson. Scott Norris was ring bearer.

Rev. De La Cerna officiated at the marriage ceremony. After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents and the newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Santa Barbara and Carmel.

The bride is a 1966 graduate of North High School. Her husband, a 1964 graduate of North, attended San Fernando and El Camino Colleges.

Couple Wed In Church

In a recent ceremony at the Church of Christ in Hermosa, Miss Wilma Kay Russell, daughter of James A. Russell, 20122 Saltee Ave., became the bride of Robert Harold Brewer, son of Harold W. Brewer, 17524 Elgar Ave.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length lace gown. Her long veil was held by a pearl tiara and she carried a white Bible topped by three white orchids.

In long red empire gowns, attendants were Misses Linda Park, Glenda Lowery, Chris Renfro and Susan Russell.

John Warren was best man and the 125 guests were seated by Sam Arnold.

Richard Brewer, Larry Russell, Von Russell and Mike Bolton.

Rev. Douglas Dean officiated at the marriage and soloists were Lyman and Beverly Wadd.

A reception was held at the Torrance YWCA and the honeymoon was spent in Palm Springs. The new address is 3813 W. Artesia Blvd., Torrance.

The bride is a graduate of West High School and the Flavia Beauty College. Her husband is a 1964 graduate of North High school.
